1. Dr. Yerraballi is a great professor.

2. Professor Yerraballi was an extremely good instructor. I think that this course was very fair.

3. Professor Yerraballi is an amazing professor. He is always prepared for class and makes it enjoyable for the students. His quizzes and tests are very fair and returned promptly. He also makes the student unafraid to ask questions or go by his office hours to get help with a problem. Professor Yerraballi is definitely the best professor I have had to date, and I hope that he will teach more BME classes in the future.

4. Dr. Y is a very caring professor. He takes the time to make sure all the students understand the material. He goes above and beyond the effort of any professor I have had at UT to get material across to the students, even if it means spending extra time in his office hours or making more detailed ppts for us or even youtube video tutorials. I'm not a big fan of circuits but he broke it down so it was easier to follow. Sometimes though he did slow down too much and it was easy to get lulled into sleep because 1 the class is early in the morning 2 you stop paying attention if you get what he is talking about for a few minutes. Overall he is awesome. UT, you need to treat him better, give the man a raise.

5. Dr. Yerrabali is a fantastic professor who genuinely cares about his students and their success. The fact that he is paid merely fraction of other professors who hardly care to teach and instead focus their entire time on their research is a disgrace to the system. Dr. Yerrabali should be compensated justly for his excellent work in helping the School of Engineering maintain its status as, in fact, a school, and not a research institution.

6. Dr. Yerraballi is a great professor! He really cares about his students and makes an effort to help his students every day. He is more concerned about his students learning the material than the grades that his students get. He is always willing to help and answer any questions. He deserves a pay raise!

7. Give him a raise!

8. Great professor, very clear information. the only critique I have is too much "what we did in the last class" intro which took over 10 minutes of the class time and was often unnecessary. Everything else was great.

9. This class was well organized and Yerraballi really cared about how the students were doing. It is refreshing to have a professor who cares so much and tries so hard to ensure that everyone fully understands the material. He taught at a good pace and for his first time teaching the course it was really good.

10. Subject might have generally considered to be dreaded but you made the class interesting for me! I didn't dread the subject material because you were such an awesome professor, so thanks! I wish that you would still teach signals...

11. Dr. Y you were awesome! I don't think I would have like the class as much if you hadn't taught it.

12. Yerraballi is an incredible professor. He is genuinely interested in the success of his students and is more than willing to explain things over until it's fully understood. I have never had a UT lecturer as fantastic as Yerraballi.

13. Dr. Yerraballi was an excellent professor. He is understanding, friendly, amiable, and approachable. He really cares about his students and wants to make sure everyone understands each concept. He makes his lectures interesting. We are privileged to have him as a professor and would love to have him teach us again!!

14. Dr. Yerraballi is a great professor however, sometimes it felt like he over complicated the material during lecture. I feel that the slides were fairly straight forward and that he should have better utilized them. Dr. Yerraballi can be hard to follow during lecture, he kind of jumps from board to board during lecture. I believe that without a doubt Dr. Yerraballi is much better professor than Dr. Emelianov and that Dr. Yerraballi should teach BME 343 next semester and NOT Emelianov. It would be much better for the students - Dr. Yerraballi is responsive to student's needs and is respectful to us. It would be much much better for the forth year BME students.

15. Thank you for being such a great professor Dr. Y. You are one of the few throughout the whole faculty who can really teach and engage their students in learning. That's not all, it doesn't matter which course it is, you make it interesting enough for them to motivate them to learn more. Keep doing such a wonderful job Dr. Y.

16. Great teacher who cares about the performance of his students. It was his first time teaching the class so it could have been better organized, but it was still better than many of my other classes.

17. Dr. Yerraballi is one of the best professors I've had at UT. He should be paid more.
